Getting Started

HeinOnline Homepage (home.heinonline.org)

Click Log In from the top right of the HeinOnline homepage (home.heinonline.org). Users who are IP authenticated will automatically bypass the username/password page and will land on the HeinOnline Welcome Page. For institutional users bookmarking a HeinOnline URL, use <http://heinonline.org/HOL/Welcome>.

Other features of the HeinOnline homepage include lists of available libraries and content, subscription information, and information about various services offered by HeinOnline, including the author portal, branding, cataloging, the HeinOnline app, and digital ownership.

Login Page

To access HeinOnline, you must have a username and password or be using a computer terminal at your institution that is IP authenticated for HeinOnline access. If you do not know the username and password, please contact the HeinOnline administrator at your institution.

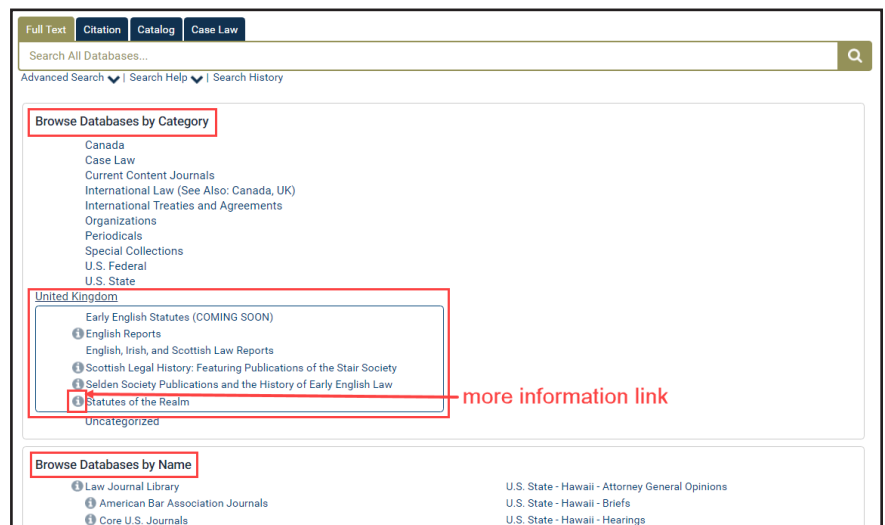

Students logging in from off-campus will likely need to log into their school's web portal or proxy server in order to access HeinOnline. Questions about web portals should be directed to your university's library staff.

To login using OpenAthens or Shibboleth, type your institution's name into the field with the off-campus/remote access area.

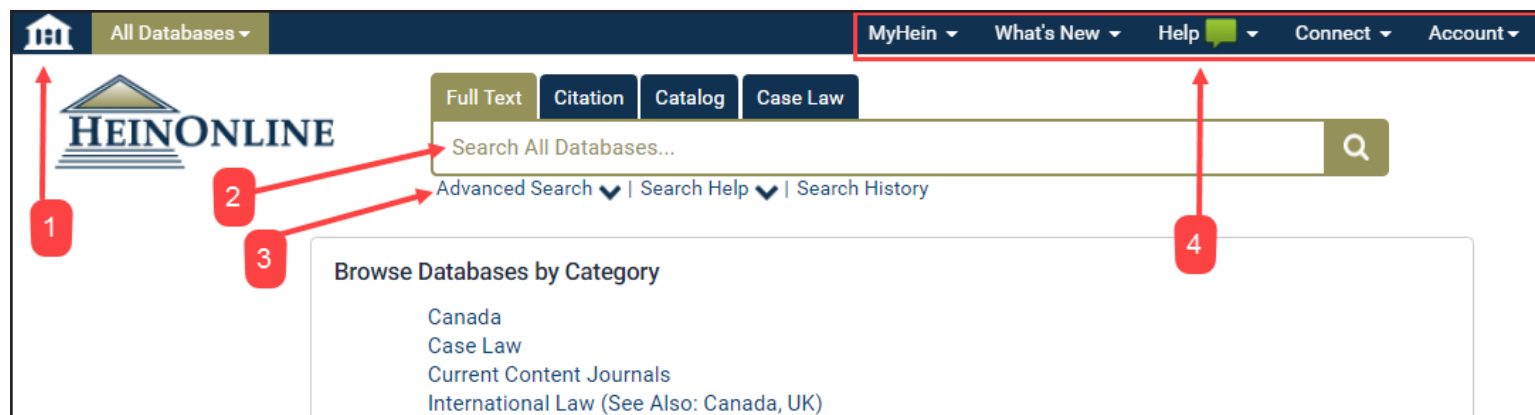

Welcome Page

The HeinOnline Welcome Page lists available databases both by category and name. The category view is expandable, so users can click on the desired category to view available databases that fall within the category.

Click the more information link next to any database for a brief description of its content and a downloadable list of all titles included in the database.

Features of the Welcome Page

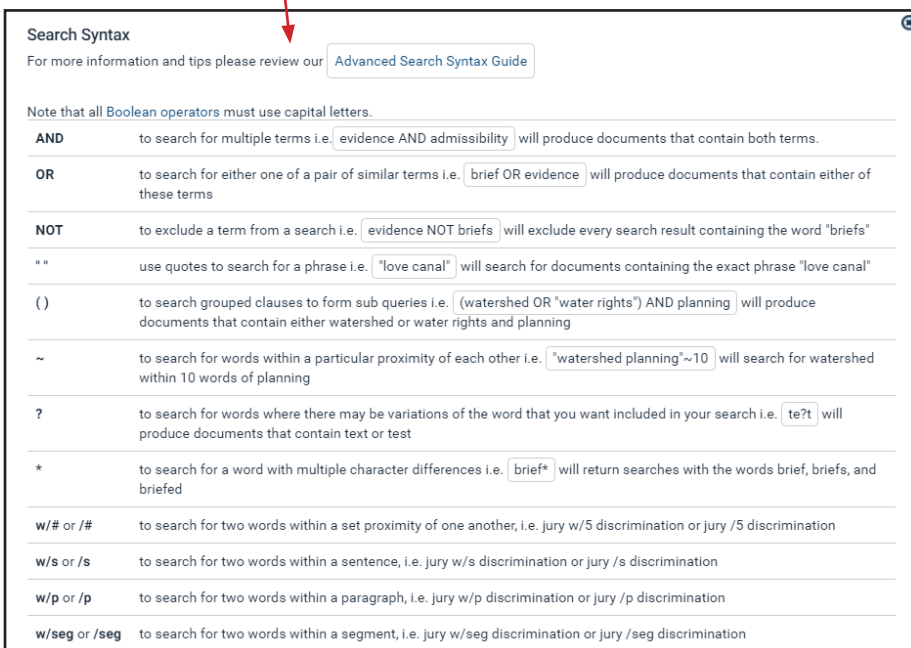

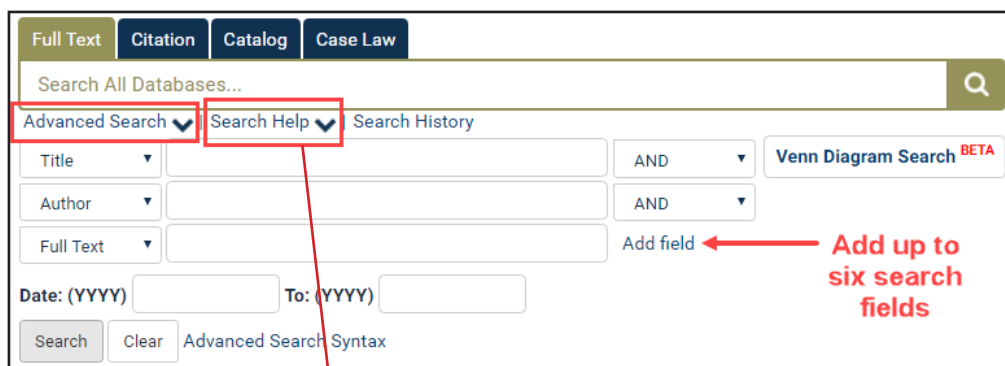

1. The home button will return users to the Welcome Page from anywhere in HeinOnline.
2. The main search bar, which remains stationary and available on all pages in HeinOnline, has four search options under separate tabs: full text (including metadata), citation, catalog, and case law.
3. Click Advanced Search from the Full Text or Catalog search tabs to access additional search fields and the ability to narrow searches by title and date ranges.
4. The options bar on the upper right side of the screen offer access to MyHein and a "What's New" area where users can view recent blog posts, download monthly content release CSVs, and view new content by library. Users can also connect with HeinOnline via social media and view account information.

Searching in HeinOnline

From the Welcome Page

Use the Full Text search tab from the Welcome Page to search across all subscribed databases, including both full text and metadata of all documents. Click Advanced Search to access multiple search fields and pre-select a date range; click Search Help to produce a list of the most commonly used search syntax.

Search Example

Perform a full text search across all subscribed databases for "Convention on the Rights of the Child" AND abus*. Note that the phrase is in quotation marks; using the * will search for abuse, abusive, abuser, etc. Next, sort search results by "Number of times Cited by Articles." Click a database facet, such as Law Journal Library, to limit results to that database.

The screenshot shows the search results page on HeinOnline. The search query is "Convention on the rights of the child" AND abus*. The results are sorted by "Number of Times Cited by Articles" and show 50 results. The first result is an "Introductory Note [legislation]" from the "International Legal Materials" database, volume 28, issue 6 (November 1989), pages 1448-1453. The text of the note is displayed, with the title and key phrases highlighted in yellow. A sidebar on the left allows for refining the search by date, collection/library, title, section type, topic, and location. A table of contents is visible on the left side of the result page.

1. Refine search results using the facets on the left side of the screen.
2. Matching text pages are highlighted in yellow.
3. Use these icons to modify search results, search within results, or expand all matching text pages.
4. Use these tools to download an instant PDF of a section, access other print/download options, email a link to the document to another user, and to bookmark the item to your MyHein personal research account. ScholarCheck (cited-by and accessed) information will display neatly in the box below the tools.

Page View

The screenshot shows the full page view of the "Convention on the Rights of the Child" document. The breadcrumb trail indicates the path: Law Journal Library > International Legal Materials 28 I.L.M. (1989) > Quick Reference Guide. The document title is "UNITED NATIONS: CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD* [Adopted November 20, 1989] +Cite as 28 I.L.M. 1448 (1989)+". The introductory note is by Cynthia Price Cohen. The text of the note is displayed, with the title and key phrases highlighted in green. A table of contents is visible on the left side of the page. A sidebar on the left allows for navigating through the document's sections.

1. Table of Contents; the current section will be highlighted in gold.
2. The checkmark icon displays ScholarCheck stats; the Cite icon displays citation information.
3. The breadcrumb trail will take you back one or more steps in your navigation history.
4. The image toolbar offers a variety of options. Hover over each tool for a description of its function.
5. Text that matches the search criteria will be highlighted in green.

Other Search Options

Use the Citation search option to quickly retrieve a document using its citation. In addition to standard Bluebook citations, HeinOnline has added alternate citation forms from the Cardiff Index to Legal Abbreviations and Prince's Bieber Dictionary of Legal Abbreviations. If a document's citation format is unknown, click Citation Format Guide for an A-Z list of titles. Click any title to access volume and page boxes. Enter this information and click Get Citation to access the document.

The Catalog search tab can be used to locate items at the publication level. This option will search across the entire HeinOnline catalog, including MARC21 records provided by Cassidy Cataloguing, so users may see results from databases to which they do not subscribe. Click Advanced Catalog Search to produce additional search fields and to preselect a date range in which to search.

Catalog search results will include the database in which each title can be found, as well as facets that can be used to narrow search results by database, subject, publication type, or date.

Working within HeinOnline Databases

Navigating between Databases

Select a database, such as the Law Journal Library, from the HeinOnline Welcome Page by clicking the library name. Once inside a database, users have several methods of switching to a different databases.

1. Use the HeinOnline home button on the top left side of any screen to return to the Welcome Page, where a different databases can be selected.
2. Use the breadcrumb trail and click "Databases" to return to the Welcome Page.
3. Click the database name, highlighted in gold, from the top left side of the screen. This will produce a drop-down menu of other available databases.

Database Homepage

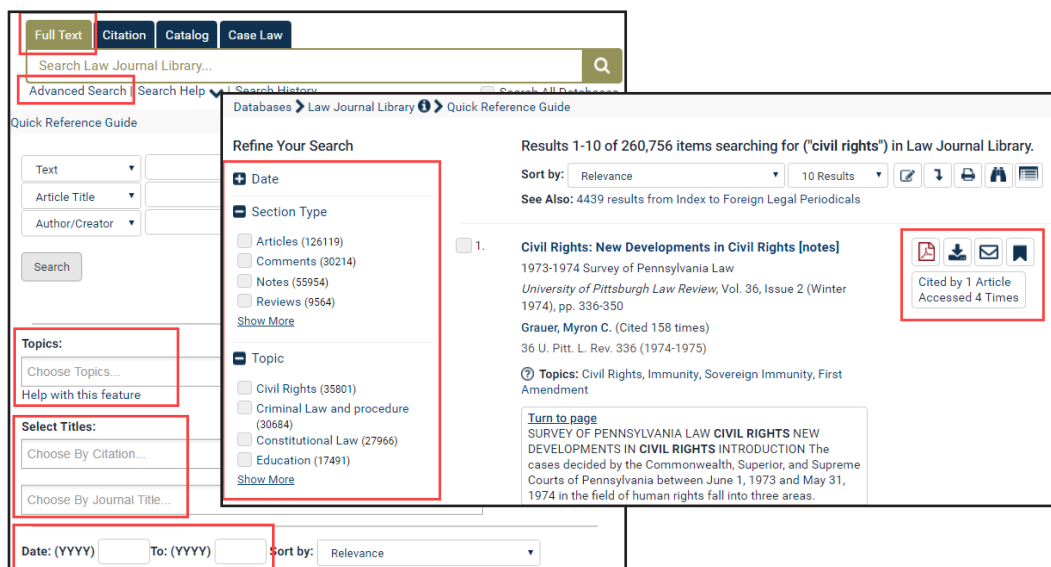

Once inside a database, browse the list of titles using the A-Z title index. Use the browse options at the top of each page to browse within subdatabases or to use special tools. Search using the main search bar, which is stationary at the top of each page in HeinOnline. Click Advanced Search for additional search options, or click Search Help for assistance in forming a search query.

NOTE: Access to the citation, catalog, and case law search options remains available and stationary on all pages.

Searching within a Database

Perform a full text search across all text and metadata in a database using its tab on the stationary search bar. Click Advanced Search to expand search options to include search fields, pre-selected titles, subjects, topics or a date range. Search results will display in the center of the page, with facets to the left. Options, including an instant PDF download button, print/download options, the ability to email a direct PDF of the item, and MyHein appear to the right, along with ScholarCheck information.

Citation Navigator

If a database has its own citation navigator, this can be found using the Citation search tab. Click Citation, then choose Citation Navigator. Click Citation Format Guide for an A-Z title index and a list of citation formats. Entering the first few letters of the citation will cause a drop-down menu of corresponding citations to appear. The Law Journal Library's Classic Citation Navigator is available by clicking the link, as shown:

The first screenshot shows the 'Citation Navigator' search interface with a search bar containing 'Wis Envtl LJ' and a 'Get Citation' button. The second screenshot shows the 'Citation' tab selected in the top navigation bar, with a search bar and a dropdown menu showing 'Citation Navigator' and 'Citation Format Guide'. The third screenshot shows a dropdown menu of citation formats including 'Harv. L.', 'Harv. BlackLetter LJ', 'Harv. L. & Gender', 'Harv. L. & Pub Pol'y', 'Harv. L. & Tech', 'Harv. L. & Pol'y Rev. Online', 'Harv. L. & Pol'y Rev.', 'Harv. L. Rec.', 'Harv. L. Rev.', 'Harv. L. Rev. F.', 'Harv. L. S. Rec.', 'Harv. L. Sch. Rec.', 'Harv. Latino L. Rev.', and 'Harv. Latinx L. Rev.'.

Working within a Volume/Title

When browsing a volume of a title, the table of contents will display in the left viewing pane. The TOC contains a link to each item listed and a PDF icon to print or download each section. The current section in which you are browsing will always be highlighted. The "Cite" icon will display citation information in several formats, which can be copied/pasted or exported. The ScholarCheck red checkmark icon will display "cited by" information. Navigate through a volume by scrolling, using the arrows at the top and bottom of each page image, or by using your keyboard's arrow keys.

The screenshot shows a document page with a table of contents on the left and a citation list on the right. The table of contents lists 'Torture Center for Professional Values and Practice Symposium: Criminal Defense in the Age of Terrorism' on page 207. The citation list shows various formats for the same document, including MLA 8th ed., APA 6th ed., Chicago 7th ed., Bluebook 20th ed., OSCOLA 4th ed., and McGill Guide 9th ed. The 'Cite this document' button is highlighted.

HeinOnline Tools

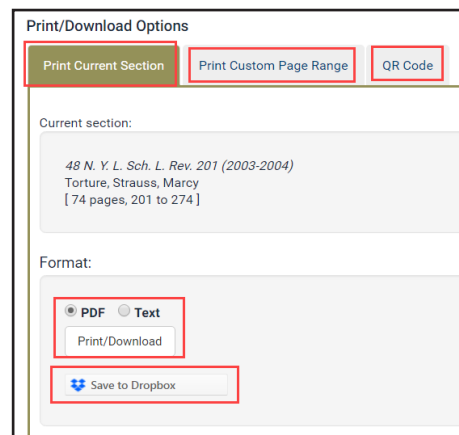

Printing/Downloading

There are multiple options available for printing and downloading pages and sections of a volume while working in HeinOnline. Users can click the PDF icon from the image toolbar, from the table of contents of any document, or from search results in order to generate an instant PDF of the current article or section. For instances where the section exceeds 200 pages, the user will be directed to the print/download options screen.

Click the download icon from either search results or from the image toolbar to access print/download options. From the print/download options screen, users can:

1. Print the current section as a PDF or text document.*
2. Print a custom page range.
3. Save a document to a Dropbox account.
4. Use a HeinOnline-authenticated mobile device to read a QR code to retrieve a document.

*The PDF download options requires the user to have a PDF reader installed on their system; text documents are generated using uncorrected OCR text.

MyHein

Anyone with access to HeinOnline has the ability to create one or more MyHein personal research accounts. This allows users to create and organize bookmarked articles, cases and other documents, save search queries, and set up electronic table of contents (eTOC) alerts and RSS feeds. Users can add notes to bookmarks, or email them to colleagues or classmates. Journal article bookmarks can be exported to a CSV or to Endnote or Refworks. Click here for a detailed MyHein guide.

Account Setup/Login

Click MyHein from the options bar on the top right side of any screen in HeinOnline, then click Login or Create an Account. The Create an Account option will prompt the user to enter the required information.

Bookmarks

Bookmark articles from search results by clicking the MyHein bookmark icon from the search result. Bookmark multiple articles simultaneously from the MyHein tool located at the top of the search result on any results page. You can also add tags to organize your search results. View saved bookmarks by clicking MyHein from the options bar and selecting Saved Bookmarks. From this area, bookmarks can be deleted or moved, or notes can be added.

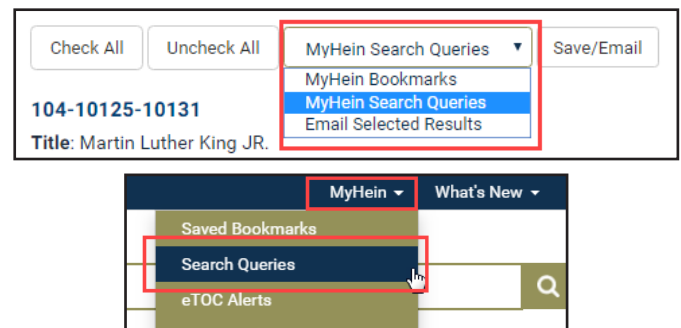

To export bookmarks, check the boxes next to the desired material and select Email, Export to CSV, Export to Refworks, or Export to Endnote. To move bookmarks within a tag, or to rearrange tags, use the + icon and drag.

Search Queries

Save search queries by performing a search, scrolling down through results, and choosing MyHein Search Queries from the drop-down list at the top of the search result on any results page. An email alert will be sent whenever new material is added to HeinOnline that matches the criteria of the search query.

Electronic Tables of Contents (eTOC) Alerts

Set up eTOC alerts or RSS feeds in order to be notified when new material is added to a selected title in HeinOnline. Navigate to a title or locate it using the catalog search option. From the title listing, click Create eTOC Alert or RSS. View saved eTOC alerts by clicking MyHein from the upper right options bar and choosing eTOC Alerts.
